Bovett

1. John Bovett patented land in Spotsylvania County, Virginia in 1727. Since the name does not appear on the 1704 Patent list for this county or for any of the adjoining counties it seems reasonable to suppose that he came from the north end of the former ^{county} with the original settlers, either of Warrenton, York and Gloucester City when the vast tracts of Indian lands were opened up in the northern part of the colony had been created for settling persons at Bovett's Ferry on the Chickahominy. The first of the name, William Bovett, represented the county of James City as a member of the House of Burgesses in 1644-1646-1649. John Bovett left issue, sons William, Jacob and Edmund.

BARRETT

1. John Barrett patented land in Isle of Wight County, Virginia in 1727. Since the name does not appear on the 1704 tithable lists for this county or for any of the adjoining counties it seems reasonable to suppose that he came from the north side of the James River with the migration from the counties of Warwick, York and James City when the vast tracts of Indian lands were opened up on the Nottoway River. The family had been seated for many years in James City County at Barretts Ferry on the Chickahominy. The first of the name, William Barrett, represented the county of James City as a member of the House of Burgesses in 1644-1646-1649. John Barrett left issue, sons William, Jacob and Edmund.
